

Business Excellence Manager

Posted: MAY 2021

1. Responsibilities and Duties

- Partner with multiple stakeholders in a complex cross-functional setup to lead organizational change programs.
- Improve organizational architecture and corporate governance to maintain alignment with ongoing business needs and future changes.
- Lead digitalization of information and processes by improving organization's understanding of application of ERP systems.
- Propose solutions to architecture and system related problems through benchmarking and business analysis.
- Build and develop a team of business analysts and change project managers

2. Job Specifications

Education:

- Bachelor's degree, preferably Master's degree in a related field.

Experience:

- Minimum 6 years of experience in business operations/excellence and/or management consulting.
- Track record of implementing process and system improvements through organization-wide change programs.

Knowledge & Skills:

- Understanding concepts of organizational excellence.
- Understanding complex organizational architecture.
- Able to leverage information systems to the benefit of process integration

- Able to propose and promote creative ideas for solving organizational problems
- Strong sense of analytical and systematic thinking, process improvement, and problem solving
- Excellent leadership skills.

Behavioral qualities:

- Able to lead and deliver change in a complex multi-disciplined organization.
- Detail oriented and eager to learn.

Ideal Age:

Employment type: Full Time

Work Location: Tehran