

DanaEnergy

Junior Drilling Supervisor (Night Company man)

Posted: September 2021

1. Job Summary

Supervision and execution of all drilling and completion operations safely, in accordance with approved drilling program.

2. Responsibilities and Duties

- Supervision and execution of drilling operations at night in site, and report any problem, unconformity, and lesson learns to day company man.
- Check field ticket of contractors, considering their performance.
- Ensure to send and receive contractor's equipment on time to avoid imposing extra cost to the project.
- Prepare daily drilling reports.
- Check material in/out and used reports in material inventory, prepared by drilling engineer.
- Analyze and assess data and reports, received from contractors in order to improve operation efficiency.
- Participate in daily operational meeting with all contractors.
- Ensure all safety regulations and requirements are followed by service contractors while operations.
- Report any nonconformity of contractors in STOP CARD and cooperate with day company man to prepare NCR, if deems necessary.
- Coordinate with logistic operation base to receive / send material and equipment in a timely manner and in convenient conditions.
- Prepare list of required material for operation on time (material request) and include same in daily reports. Ensure to offload material and equipment on drilling site following all safety standards.

3. Qualifications

Education:

- Bachelor in Drilling Engineering/ Petroleum Engineering (all majors)/ Mechanical engineering
- Passing drilling training courses, IWCF & IADC Well Sharp are mandatory)

Experience:

- 6 years (at least 2 years in Offshore rigs).

Knowledge & Skills:

- Familiar with Drilling of problematic formations, drilling with total loss (blind drilling) with the risk of hole pack off and stuck.
- Familiar with Mud Line Suspension, be familiar with MLS system and running and retrieving casing in this system.
- Exhibit strong computer skills, including Microsoft Office Suite
- Fluent technical writing and verbal communication in English skills are required.

Behavioral qualities:

- Time Management
- Crisis & Stress Management
- Proven high performance working in a multi-disciplinary team.
- Proven forward looking thinker who actively seeks opportunities and innovative solutions.
- Having a Committed, Integrated and Knowledgeable approach in the workplace (Dana Energy Core Values)

Employment Type: Full Time

Work Location: Kish- Offshore