

DanaEnergy

Senior Fluids Engineer

1. Responsibilities and Duties

Tasks & Responsibilities:

Study and review tender documents and providing tender-required technical programs accordingly

Establishing dedicated Job description for Drilling fluid, cement and waste management sections

Providing comprehensive technical bid evaluations (TBE) to assess service providers competency

Evaluation of bidder's submitted documents for cementing and drilling fluids to select the awarded bidder

Supervising the accuracy of the execution process of drilling fluid, cementing and waste management programs and ensure the programs have been followed correctly

Improving the process of program implementation to improve operation efficiency

Reviewing daily mud reports and end of well recaps of drilling fluid services

Preparing comprehensive well recaps including volumetric calculations, important comments, drilling factors, drilling fluid properties charts and etc., and providing practical lessons learned list at the end of each drilling section.

2. Job Specifications

Education:

Bachelor's degree or higher in related fields such as petroleum, chemistry, mechanics

Experience:

+7 Years (Minimum 3 years field experience)

Knowledge & Skills:

Skilled in Drilling Fluid & Cement Design, Test.

Supervise and support the operational activities.

Fluent in English (reading, Writing, Speaking)-

Skilled in Microsoft Office

Acquainted with waste management

Behavioral qualities:

Planning and organizing

Cost control management

Follow up to get results

Time management

Crisis Management

Ideal Age: - Gender: Male

Type of employment: Full Time

Place of work: Tehran office